In Bethlehem Long Ago

1 Long, long ago in Bethlehem The Christ child came, With no one but the Mother sweet To warm His little hands and feet, And know His name. 2 How wonderful to think that He Was God of all! No sign of Heaven's bright estate, To show that He was rich and great, That babe, so small! 3 Yet thousand angels worshiped Him On that dark night,

This time I'm using Pion's collection called "Long Ago In Bethlehem". I think this made me actually learn how to spell "Bethlehem". LOL! I love the vintage feel of these papers and of course the colors!! YUMMY! I've used some flowers that are in the store but there are lots to choose from! I've added a few rusty pieces, the little bell and star ...

1. Long ago in Bethlehem, Far away across the sea, Jesus lived, a little child, Just like you and me; Shepherds knelt beside His bed; Wise men, from the lands afar, Brought to Him their costly gifts, Guided by the star. Refrain Long ago in Bethlehem, Jesus lived, a child like me; King of all the children's hearts, Our dearest friend is He. 2.

Long ago in Bethlehem (Burnard) | Hymnary.org

Long Ago in Bethlehem. Christmas is a lovely time of year. Kids get excited, streets are decorated and you can snuggle up in a nice big jumper with a hot cup of coffee! There are many beautiful Christmas carols out there, however I do find it a little tricky to shoe-horn some of them into a more modern worship set with chords and melodies that are more akin to what my church is used to.
