This is an excellent book on catching channel catfish but really focuses only on fishing rivers and from a boat. The focusing on fishing from a boat is a fault of all the In-Fisherman guides. I would have liked to have read more about catfishing in lakes and ponds since I fish lakes and ponds 90% of the time.

Fish Here: Although catfish lurk around structure and cover throughout this roughly 2,800-acre lake situated in the south-central part of the state, Fisherman's Bridge is the reservoir's most popular catfishing spot. This area, which has lots of riprap nearby, provides bank fishing access to the canal below the lake's inlet structure.
